

A Holistic Approach to Supporting Military Families with Special Needs

FEBRUARY 13, 2019 | 11 a.m. ET

About this Webinar

The Department of Defense's Office of Special Needs provides policy and focused support for military families with special medical and/or educational needs. Many supportive programs offer resources and tools that military families need to be successful no matter where they live or serve. This webinar will discuss how the Exceptional Family Member Program at the local level and Military OneSource's 24/7 call center, collectively, support military families using a holistic approach. Learning Objectives: After attending this webinar helping professionals will...

- Understand the key components of the Exceptional Family Member Program.
- Discover the Department's efforts to enhance the EFMP.
- Be able to access Military OneSource resources for military families with special needs.
