About This Webinar

Kids Serve Too! is a webinar series designed to support service providers and education professionals who work with military children and families. This Sesame Street for Military Families and Military Families Learning Network collaborative webinar series invites you to explore resources and strategies related to community violence, military relocation, military caregiving, and young children with special needs.

In this 90-minute webinar, representatives from the Sesame Street Workshop will explore trauma connected to community violence, highlight ways to help children cope, and focus on strategies that assist with self-care following a disturbing event.

Presenters

Antonio Freitas - Senior Content Manager at Sesame Workshop. Here, he works to develop content and professional development resources and courses for Sesame Street In Communities.

Sabrina Huda - Senior Project Manager, U.S. Social Impact at Sesame Workshop. Here, she leads Sesame Street's initiatives for Military Families plus initiatives spanning from literacy and numeracy to resilience and addressing trauma.

This event is hosted by the Family Development concentration area of the Military Families Learning Network.
