

KIDS SERVE TOO!

At Our Best:
Caregiving Today

July 10, 2019
11:00 am Eastern

About This Webinar

In this webinar, representative(s) from the Sesame Street Workshop will address strategies for connecting with families through the Sesame Street for Military Families website, highlight the importance of self care for providers including ways to overcome obstacles, and offer strategies to develop a self-care plan to meet the needs of caregivers and those that they support.

Learning Objectives

Participants will:

- Learn how to best address children's difficult questions and typical behaviors in military caregiving households across four areas:
  1. Comfort and strength
  2. Sharing and talking
  3. Routines
  4. Circle of Care
- Review assets related to Transitions to maintain a sense of comfort through military changes
- Explore the online platforms of SSIC and SS4MF

Presenter

Antonio Freitas - Senior Content Manager at Sesame Workshop. Here, he works to develop content and professional development resources and course for Sesame Street In Communities. Prior to joining the US Social Impact Team at Sesame, Antonio worked as an early childhood Deputy Director with The Children's Aid Society in New York. In this role, he professionally developed teaching staff, and managed educational compliance across the agency's 14 early childhood sites in Harlem, Staten Island, the Bronx, and Washington Heights. Prior to this role, Antonio managed sites as a Program Director leading staff, students, and families in the Early Head Start and Head Start initiatives.
