

Sexualized Behaviors in Children and Youth

MAY 22, 2019 | 11 AM ET

Child sexual abuse can be a very tough topic to discuss. However, it is a very important topic when preparing families and professionals with strategies to keep kids safe and thriving during childhood and youth. In this webinar Dr. Shelly Martin, a child abuse pediatrician and US Air Force Lieutenant Colonel, will review and explore normal, concerning and problematic sexual behavior that children may display. Additionally, various factors associated with children's sexual behaviors will be identified to assist clinicians in understanding appropriate assessment and disclosure processes involved when problematic symptoms are present.

Presenter:

Shelly Martin, M.D.

Lt Col, USAF, MC,
Child Abuse Pediatrician

Dr. Martin has extensive experience and training in the areas of child physical and sexual abuse, child neglect, child fatalities, medical child abuse, child pornography, and child interviewing. She provides consultation in cases of child maltreatment, child abuse, and neglect to all branches of the Armed Services.
