Guided Discussion Questions

The MFLN Early Intervention team seeks to provide practitioners with resources that support the important work they do with military families. These guided discussion questions are designed to be used with children from ages 3-6 at home or in preschool settings. These questions can be used with children who have a loved one in the military or children who want to gain a better understanding of military life.

H is for Honor by Devin Scillian

1. Each page of this book has a letter from the alphabet.
On this page what letter is the author talking about?
Can you find the letter ____?
2. What are some new things that were mentioned in the book that you did not know about the military?
3. What does honor mean?
4. What page did you like the best?
5. Have you ever written a letter to someone in the military? Who?
6. What are the different kinds of team work that can be seen in the military? (Found on the T page)
7. Think of the first letter of your name. What word would you put in a book that starts with your special letter?
