COMMUNICATION: SEEK FIRST TO UNDERSTAND, THEN BE UNDERSTOOD

EVENT LOCATION

<https://militaryfamilieslearningnetwork.org/event/69328/>

Personal Finance Managers provide counseling to many different military families going through difficult financial situations. Using communication skills effectively is vital to the success of their work with clients.

In this webinar, we will discuss the ways to most effectively communicate with clients so that strategies for positive change can be put into action, and clients can achieve their goals.

PRESENTER

Ryan H. Law teaches in the Personal Financial Planning program at Utah Valley University. He is also the Director of the Utah Valley University Money Management Resource Center where volunteer peer Financial Coaches educate students, faculty, and staff through one-on-one counseling sessions and presentations on campus.

CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDIT

This webinar is approved for 1.5 CE credits for:

- Accredited Financial Counselors (AFC) from AFCPE
- Certified Personal Finance Counselors (CPFC) from FinCert
- Certified Family Life Educators (CFLE) from NCFR
