

AUGUST 24, 2021

11:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. ET

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Supportive adult-youth relationships are important. Learn strategies to foster these relationships!

EVENT LOCATION

<https://militaryfamilieslearningnetwork.org/event/104328/>

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion in Youth Programs: Fostering Supportive Adult–Youth Relationships

Supportive adult-youth relationships are an important component of youth programs and critical for those programs that want to create a welcoming and safe environment. Learn staff development strategies to foster supportive adult-youth relationships and help make your program more inclusive.

Learning Objectives:

- Be introduced to the Youth Inclusion Implementation Guide (YIIG) and Module
- Be introduced to the model for adult learning within the YIIG (i.e. reflective practice)
- Learn how adult-youth relationships impact Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI)
- Learn strategies for strengthening the impact adult-youth relationships have on DEI within the program

PRESENTERS

Adeya Richmond, Ph.D., LP
Lead Research Scientist
REACH Center

Mark Otto
Project Director for Outreach
REACH Center

CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDIT

MFLN Family Transitions has applied for 1.5 CE credits from:

- UT Austin Steve Hicks School of Social Work
- National Council on Family Relations to CFLE's
- A Certificate of Completion is also available for providers interested in documenting their professional development

RSVP TODAY!

FAMILY TRANSITIONS
Military Families Learning Network